Job Description:

Under the direct supervision of the Deputy Director, the Health Program Specialist I (HPS I) will provide coordination and oversight of activities to support the development and implementation of a new interdepartmental Complaint Data Public Reporting Project. The incumbent will coordinate the effort to research, develop and implement a public reporting system to collect standardized health care coverage complaint data from the following entities: California Department of Managed Health Care (DMHC), California Department of Insurance (CDI), California Department of Health Care Services (DHCS), Managed Risk Medical Insurance Board (MRMIB) and California Health Benefit Exchange (HBEx). This position is based in Sacramento and will require only minimal travel. WHO MAY APPLY: Priority will be given to candidates with Surplus/SROA status. Reinstatements, lateral transfers and candidates who are currently on a certification employment list are encouraged to apply. All applications will be reviewed and only the most qualified will be interviewed.
